

M.D. Keoma Meeting

The Council of M. D. Keoma met in regular session on October 19, 1925, and the Council met for the first time since the meeting held on October 15, 1925, at which time the following resolutions were adopted as read:

The following correspondence was read:

An application for restaurant license by the Dundas Trading Co., which was approved for the year 1925.

Deer's Want Animal

Correspondence was read in the matter of an animal of Mr. Jas. Nelson, and a letter dated Sept. 19th from Mr. Nelson stated that he wished to take the proceeds for the horse, and no redem name, therefore the secretary had proceeded under authority of section 47 of the Domestic Animals Act, and ascertained the proof of brand. On motion it was agreed to forward Mr. Nelson the proceeds of the sale of animal, namely $14.75.

On motion the following delegates were appointed to attend the Convention at Municipalities, to be held in Edmonton, November 25, 26 and 27. Mr. Scarth and Mr. Bates alternate delegate Mr. F. D. W. King.

Pound By-Law Passed

The secretary read the by-law No. 25, as approved by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Mr. Greenfield, which was adopted and duly passed upon three times, providing for the refunding of all animals from running at large in the Wharf of the District at all times. Arrangements were made for the passing of the 15 copies of same.

Bridge Wanted

The matter of bridge requests were requested and the following were added:

Rebuilding necessary of old bridge (two) between sections 14 and 11, 27-24, 4 in division 6.

Rebuilding and straightening necessary for bridge west of Irwin's S.E. of section 29-27-24.

Mr. Thurston reported on the matter of bridge east of section 29-27-24, and stated that contract had been let in regard to the necessary protection from public damage and to the filling in of the approaches.

On motion the account of Mr. J. Sellar, contractor for the construction of above bridge, for the amount of $202.06, was disallowed. It was agreed to refer this account to the Reeve for investigation.

Councillor Walker spoke in regard to the work being done by Mr. Wise on his road, and the council voted sufficient material for one culvert.

Read Grants Earlier

On motion the following resolution was passed and the delegates to the Convention instructed to bring same

Keoma Notes

Threshing has recommenced in the district and the iron on the engines is a welcome sound after weeks of inactivity.

Keoma is a community to be proud to be a part of. Many of the farmers are building new homes, with all the modern improvements in the best city houses. Keoma needs no bowing. It speaks for itself.

Mr. Greenfield, from Detroit, Mich., is again visiting his home.

Last Thursday evening the electors of the Keoma district listened very appreciatively to an interesting address by Mr. J. G. Gouge. Numerous questions were asked by the audience both for and against. We are to have Mr. Garland here next Tuesday, and we hope that the meeting will be as interesting as the last.

We are sorry to report that Teddy Sheppard fell from his horse last Tuesday while coming from school, and fracturing his wrist. We hope he will soon be about again.

Dalemead

Mr. Byers, from Calgary, was a Dalemead cat this week.

Mrs. Huntley visited her sister, Mrs. J. Holmes, who has been quite sick with flu.

Conder sang "Amen Slick from Pemmican Creek." To be put on by the Junior U.F.A. the first party of November. Watch for date next week.

Wednesday a political speech was given by Mr. Coote, and on Saturday by Mr. Heron at the Tabernacle Hall. The Social Club held a dance Saturday evening. Quite a number attended in spite of the snow.

Mr. Phelps' son, Maurice, who has been visiting at her son's home, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton, returned to her home in Michigan.

Mr. S. Newton, W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. P. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. M. Van der Velde were among the Calgary visitors Saturday.

before that body.

RESOLVED—That the road grant from the Department should be available by December 1st, the previous year, to enable the Municipalities to start roadwork before the season became too dry.

A number of bills and accounts were passed.

The date of the next meeting was fixed as November 14th.

FRANK J. EWING,
Secretary-Treasurer

Garland at Rockyford

E. J. Garland, Progressive member of the federal house from Bow Valley, and candidate for the next constituency again, addressed a meeting at Rockyford on Monday evening. Mr. J. C. Buckley, M.L.A., also spoke.

Farmers from all parts of the district were in attendance and it looked as though they had lost none of their enthusiasm for the support of Mr. Garland and the Progressive party.

The speaker dealt with the questions of the day in his regular lucid manner and the old line parties were the object of a good deal of his invective, although as he himself said, he did not deal in personalities but in principles. He spoke in the kindest terms of Mr. Gouge and Mr. Douglas, opponents in this constituency, representing the Liberal and Conservative parties. It was a three-cornered fight.

The Conservative party under the leadership of Mr. Meighen, the speaker said, were out for an upward revision of the tariff to please the manufacturers with an equalization of railway rates as a sop for the farmers. The raising of the tariff the speaker argued would kill agriculture and raise the cost of living for all classes, benefiting none but the manufacturers.

The King government came in for a good deal of criticism in not having kept faith with the people failing to live up to promises made at the election and also to representatives from the west who brought to them the problems of the west during sessions of parliament and secured promises, which were never carried out.

Instances of which were the rural credits on which they apportioned a royal commission in the person of Dr. Tully, president of Alberta University, who in his search discovered that Canada was about the only agricultural country in the world that did not have an adequate system of rural credits and gave it as his opinion not only that it was feasible but must be done in the interest of western agriculture.

After four years of investigation a bill was brought in three days before the prorogation of parliament leaving no time for amendments with the result that it was valueless. The same was true in regard to the soldiers civil re-establishment in the revaluation of the land and property which had been sold to the soldiers. The speaker criticized the government policy of immigration having spent millions in bringing people to the country and doing very little to make it possible for them to remain on the land. Having taken a trip abroad this summer he declared the whole immigration propaganda was a misrepresentation.

The speaker said that though the two leaders, Liberal and Conservative, had toured the west he expected that their representation from the prairie and Mrs. Russell Kidd and small son, Lindsay, who have spent the summer in standard, left on Friday's train for Yuma, Mich., where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. J. Dand and Mrs. F. D. Knowlton spent a pleasant week end at Lacombe, Alta., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fringale.

We are glad to report that Miss Carla Castella is gradually improving. Mr. S. Clendfield, of Beltsville, attended the Saturday night dance last week.

Threshing was resumed last week on Wednesday, but only a day's work was done owing to more wet weather. Some outfits were busy working on Saturday again—quite a little of the grain standing tough, which means a great loss to the farmers.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE SOCIAL

The social evening organized by the Standard Women's Institute on Friday, October 16, was a very successful event. The occasion was the presentation of the special prizes donated by the Institute to the winners in the special classes at the School Fair.

A program was given by some of the children, assisted by Mrs. Peterson, who contributed acceptable musical items; Mrs. Knowlton, who rendered a reading in her customary charming manner; Mr. F. Messenger and Mr. Allen, who obliged with a humorous selection.

Before the refreshments were served, Mr. Buckley distributed the following prizes, accompanying each presentation with an appropriate expression of congratulation.

Fine and Useful Sewing—1st, pearl needles, Ellen Andersen; 2nd, miniature set—Edna Jensen.

Best Specimen of Darning—1st, Jewel Case—Margaret Rasmussen; 2nd, darning ball—Martha Webb.

Best Bird House—Sealor, 1st, gold-filled chain—Beavis Story; 2nd, pocket knife—Peter Andersen. Junior—1st, gold-filled Eversharp—Walter Watson; 2nd, pocket knife—Walter Hansen.

A collection was taken, and after expenses are paid there will be a sum of twelve dollars to be used in providing a Christmas treat for the school children.

After refreshments had been served, Mr. Garland, candidate for the Bow River riding, delivered his campaign speech to an interesting audience.

Standard Women's Institute meets the first Wednesday in every month, and welcomes any visitors and new members.

The provinces would be small, and the Progressives would hold the balance of the power.

get more under protection, and would see a steadier job. The cost of maintenance men, and overhead would be reduced if work was steady in the mines. There was enough slack coal being wanted to grind all the flour produced in Western Canada. He supported Mr. Steichen in his railway policy. He was opposed to the Hudson Bay Railway, until we made the railways we had at present pay. He would put an embargo on exportation of pulpwood.

Coal-Owner Speaks
Mr. Henderson, manager of the Jewel Mine, at Wayne, said that by reason of the former Liquor Act of this Province, Mr. Douglas, being a druggist, had to supply liquor on prescriptions, and he had heard it said that the story was being circulated that he had been a bootlegger. He had never found or heard of Mr. Douglas breaking the law. As a Salvationist for 30 years, he would not support Mr. Douglas if he had considered he had done anything of that nature.

Our young men were going to the States. That meant a great deal to fathers and mothers, and especially to the girls who should be marrying here boys. He advocated the Conservative platform because it would bring prosperity to Canada and keep their sons at home.

Several questions were asked at the close, and the meeting concluded with the singing of "God Save the King".
At the conclusion an organization meeting of local supporters was held.

Gaiety Club Notes

A meeting was held at the home of Miss Florence Carpenter last Tuesday evening. Miss Paula Post, the president, was in the chair, and quite a number of vital questions were discussed.

The Gaiety Club decided to hold a miscellaneous shower for Miss Florence Carpenter (a bride-to-be of this month) on Tuesday, October 20th, at the home of Miss Post.

After the business discussion, the girls were treated to a dainty luncheon, served by the hostess.

All girls cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Liberals Meet at Rockyford

Jease Gouge Addresses Rockyford Electors.

On Saturday evening the people of Rockyford and district had the opportunity of hearing the various election issues explained by Jease Gouge, the Liberal candidate for Bow River.

D. L. McDonald acted as chairman for the meeting, and dwelt at some length with the importance to the Province of Alberta and to the Dominion of the coming election.

Dr. Sloane, of Drumheller, also spoke briefly on the workings of Parliament, and the advisability of having a member returned who was on the side of the Government. He also spoke in very eloquent terms of the success Mr. Gouge had made, both as a farmer and as a minor.

Mr. Gouge was the chief speaker, and explained the workings of the tariff and the effect of high tariffs on the price of farm machinery and other commodities they had to purchase. He also explained his policy, and compared it with the policies of the Progressives, showing that in practically all cases their policies were similar, but that regardless of who was elected throughout the Dominion the Progressive members elected would be opposition members.

The meeting was extremely well conducted, and close attention paid to all the speakers.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE SPEAKS AT ROCKYFORD

Mr. W. J. Douglass, Conservative candidate for Bow River, addressed a meeting of Rockyford and district electors on Thursday evening. Dr. Denovan acted as chairman.

Mr. Douglass fully explained the conservative policy, especially in regard to the coal mining industry.

Rockyford

The district meeting of Masonic District No. 14, Alberta, will be held at Drumheller on October 28, afternoon and evening. A number of Rockyford brethren are planning on attending. Wm. Geo. W. T. Cochran is District Deputy G.M. and Bro. James Black district secretary.

Report of Mr. Garland's address at Rockyford Monday, will be found on another page.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. F. E. Ryan last Wednesday in honor of Miss Florence Carpenter (a bride-to-be of this month). Miss Pauline Griffith and Miss A. Wells acted as hostesses for the evening. The tables were daintily decorated and the luncheon was very tasty. The gifts were numerous and varied, and shows the esteem held by Miss Carpenter in the eyes of her friends.

Florrie gave a little speech, in which she thanked her many friends for the wonderful array of gifts, and that she appreciated them very much.

Miss Emily Post, from Calgary, was none for the weekend visiting her many friends.

Mr. Roy Clark, of Edmonton, was visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Acton, for a few days this past week.

Mr. Geo. English and Mr. R. Noblett, Canadian Bank of Commerce Auditors, were visitors to the Rockyford branch this past week.

The dance held last Friday under the auspices of the R.C.Y. was a great success. Visitors from Irricana, Bellevue, Carbon, Calgary, and Rosedale were in attendance.

The Waverley Barber Shop is now equipped as an up-to-date hairdressing parlor, entirely separate from the billiard room. The patronage of ladies is cordially invited.

Mr. F. Mathews, of Canton, Ohio, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. Carpenter during the past week. He left by motor for his home.

United Church Notes

For the time-being Services will be held in Tudor every other Sunday afternoon. This has been arranged so that Service can be given at Jarvis. This arrangement will be followed so long as cars are running; when we will fall back again upon "old Dobbin", then we propose to give Tudor every Sunday afternoon, and Jarvis every Wednesday evening. We trust in this rearrangement of our work all our friends will see the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number". It means extra territory and extra responsibilities, but we are indeed glad to welcome Jarvis and district into the Rockyford Circuit. We need hardly add that as it is impossible under the circumstances to continue services at Nightingale and Ardenode we shall be delighted to have our friends at these points joining with us at the Jarvis Services.

We would like to remind our people of the near approach of our Anniversary Services, when Dr. Tufts, of Edmonton, will be with us November 1st. The Ladies have decided this year to serve dinner in the Town Hall.

Services next Sunday, Crowfoot, Jarvis, Rockyford.

CURLING CLUB GETTING READY

Winter would be more welcome if the fall threshing was completed, and everybody hopes that there will be lots of good weather between now and Christmas, but nevertheless Strathmore curlers are getting ready. They are holding a masquerade ball on election night, October 29.

An executive meeting was held on Friday, when it was decided to get the rink levelled up, and a carload of sawdust was ordered.

Socials & Sports

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe. Hargrove at the Holy Cross Hospital, Calgary, on Friday.

Miss Esther Zerkle, from Mount Royal College, Calgary, visited her parents at Strathmore over the weekend.

Miss Helen Montgomery, daughter of Canon and Mrs. Montgomery, Calgary, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Low Harvey.

Rev. Canon Montgomery, formerly of Strathmore, will attend the Memorial Service to be held here on November 8th. Mr. Montgomery is a past president of Strathmore G.W.V.A., and also of Banff G.W.V.A.

Ambrose Moran passed through Strathmore last week on his way to Vancouver to join in the hockey practice there.

As will be seen from our advertising columns, two local stores have unloading a carload of apples each this week.

A special attraction for next week is the One Cent Sale at the Rexall store.

The new Fords are now on display at Arnold Motors.

Curling Notes

The annual general meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 28th, as announced in Coming Events. Be on hand.

At an executive meeting held on Friday last, it was decided to level the rink and obtain a car of sawdust to put on a Masquerade dance on October 29th. This will be an outstanding event, as it will be Federal Election day, which is proclaimed a public half holiday, and election returns will be posted as received over radio.

The hall is to be specially decorated for Halloween, and the Girl Guides are making every effort to have the dining room as attractive as possible. Masquerade costumes can be obtained at the Strathmore Trading Co. Get yours early and be ready.

The offer of several of the Strathmore business firms in giving prizes for the best costumes and come costumes is greatly appreciated by the club. The spirit of cooperation and good fellowship on the part of the merchants is the spirit that exists, and must continue to exist among the members of the curling club. Keep that spirit alive, and keep your club on top. Boost your town, and boost your club, and keep both on top.

Tudor

The Tudor Dramatic Society were entertained last Monday by Mr. and Mrs. John Jensen, when a delightful evening was spent, the important item being the presentation of a photographic album to Miss Margaret Fray, who is leaving shortly for California.

A delightful surprise party was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Fray, who are leaving shortly for California. Mr. V. C. Chapman made an admirable chairman. After a musical programme, Mr. Geo. Day, on behalf of the Alpine Bible Class, presented Miss Margaret Fray with a fountain pen, and Mr. West, on behalf of the community, presented Mr. and Mrs. Fray and family with a purse. Mr. and Mrs. Fray and family are held in high esteem, and will be missed. They have done much for the spiritual and social life of Tudor. In the words of the poet, we hope that for them "The best has yet to be."

Miss Mamie Schaefer is spending a vacation in Calgary with her sister, Mrs. John Horn.

Little Rex, we are glad to learn, is improving in health.

Little Saxman Ruppe is home from the hospital, and getting along nicely.

When you are through threshing, don't forget the work on the new hall.

Don't fail to register your vote on the 29th.

Letter to the Editor

The Editor,
Strathmore Standard,

Dear Sir:

The Liberal candidate lately issued his platform, and gave various reasons why we should vote for him at this election.

Mr. Gouge is in absolute agreement with Mr. Garland on seven or to eleven planks in his platform, and I thought occurs to anyone giving the matter any consideration "why should we support Mr. Gouge when we have an experienced man in Mr. Garland in the field?"

Mr. Garland has won his spurs during the past four years by his fearless, aggressive fight for the rights of the West.

The U.F.A. members, as a whole, and Mr. Garland in particular, have gone on record in Hatzand upon the immigration question too often for me to need to take up valuable space now.

Mr. Garland has some before the G.W.V.A. on several occasions, and answered questions to their entire satisfaction, and has received letters of thanks and appreciation from several branches for his work on behalf of returned soldiers.

Mr. Gouge also appeals to the farmers of this constituency to elect him in order that they may stop speculating in wheat.

Surely Mr. Gouge should be aware that agrarian interests have been trying to find a solution to this question, both in U.S. and Canada, for years, and the only real solution is the Wheat Pool.

What has Mr. Gouge done to help the Pool so far? Nothing, except to place whatever wheat he may have to sell on the market in competition with the Pool, and now asks us to give him our votes as a reward for his able assistance.

Mr. Garland, on the other hand, joined the pool at once, and gave it every assistance in his power. Mr. Gouge also states, that as a member of one of the Old Line Parties, he will be able to get more for the West than a Progressive could. What would really happen is that Mr. Gouge, as a Liberal back-bender, would find himself swamped in caucus and committee by the eastern members, without the facts of the case even becoming public.

Mr. Garland, on the other hand, as a member of the Progressive group, holding the balance of power, would be far more likely to get what we need, and at least the discussion would be brought out into the open House.

The only hope of the West is to vote Progressive, farmers, country merchants, and everyone else, for what is good for the farmers is good for everyone else who depends on the success of agriculture for their living.

Why did the business men of Calgary leave their offices, etc., and give their valuable time and experience in putting the Wheat Pool over? Because, as hard-headed business men, they recognized that it meant more money for the farmers, and in consequence, more money for the province as a whole.

Yours truly,
P. H. DONKIN

LOCAL NOTINGS

A photograph of Berta Vale school in last year's school fair parade appears in the pictorial campaign number of the Alberta Red Cross News, published recently.

It has been suggested that the old Maple Leaf cellar be equipped as a swimming hole for next year. If we are to have many years like this it will be as necessary to learn to swim as to learn to walk. Already some are developing web feet.

If we know what party was responsible for the weather of the past six weeks we would vote for the other one. However, they all disclaim responsibility, but if the crop was now threshed, they would be taking credit for it.

A considerable number of Canadians throughout this district are disappointed in this election on account of the operation of the new Election Act. In order to vote in this riding, one has to be resident here for two months prior to the issue of the writ. As a consequence a number of people who came in here later will not be able to exercise their franchise. The provisions of the Act seem too stringent in this regard. A party of five men sent here by the Provincial Government, will, by reason of their being here, be unable to vote, unless they go to Edmonton, which is out of the question.

Farmers are asking each other how many bushels to the million their crops are going.

If we only had an unemployment assurance scheme here, as they have in Britain, the cost of supporting harvest men in enforced idleness would not come so high on the farmer.

Baintree

The members of the U.F.W.A. met on their regular meeting day at the home of Mrs. Charles County. A number of visitors also braved the elements to take part in the proceedings, and received a cordial welcome.

If you want to hear a real argument on politics, just hike down to the store when you see Billy Lyons making his way there. He and "Mac" will give you more entertainment in two minutes than Messrs King and McGehee could furnish in a month of Sundays.

By the way, if any of you readers see Bill Bell, tell him that a couple of his bees are roosting in our orchard. "We'd like to keep them, but when it comes to bees, we get a hunch that honesty is the best policy." When we were young and curious, we once took the lid off a hive to see what was inside. We don't have to tell you what happened because some of you guys seen our photo in the Xmas edition of the Standard. Say, weren't we real pretty?

Mr. Wm. Eldred has returned from the hospital feeling very much improved in health. At all times Bill is a most invaluable citizen, but in some cases when the rainfall is high his popularity increases, for his work is performed in a very able and agreeable fashion. So when we express the hope that his health will remain good for a long time, we are confident that every member of the district will join in the wish.

Keep on looking for the bright, bright skies,
Keep on hoping that the sun will rise,
Keep on singing when the whole world sighs.

And you'll get there in the morning.

At the last meeting of the Community Club, held on Saturday afternoon, Miss Mae Longobardi acted as hostess, and the many members who were present enjoyed the little entertainment. Arrangements were completed for the dance which will be held in the Nightingale hall on the evening of November 6th. A high class orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, no bring your partner along and fox trot or waltz to your heart's content.

The concert list is now at the post office, and it might be well for you to look it over. If you are busy and unable to attend to this matter in person, call up Mr. McLennan, on the phone; he will be pleased to inform you whether your name appears on the list or not. "Mac" will be in charge of the voting booth on election day, and the hours will be from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. By the way, we got to tell you a secret fellow. If our party gets in, we're gonna play the bawpines even if we got to spall the rest of the night in the Baintree coop.

OF LOCAL INTEREST
Readers are requested to send in items for this column not later than 12 o'clock Monday noon preceding day of publication. All local news items are welcomed by the Standard, Phone 17 or 68.

Large congregations attended the harvest festival services held in St. Michael's and All Angels on October 18. Rev. W. H. Priest, of the Presbyterian, Calgary, officiated at both services. At the forenoon service an anthem was rendered by the choir, and at the evening service two anthems. The soloists in the forenoon were Mrs. D. French and Mr. G. H. Patrick, and in the evening, Mrs. D. French, Mrs. Watson, and Mr. G. H. Patrick. The various anthems and solos were excellently rendered.

The Union Church anniversary service will be held in the church on Sunday evening, October 25. The anniversary supper will be given by the Ladies Aid the following evening, from 6 to 8 p.m., after which a concert will take place.

Lots of dances these days. On Friday evening the Imperial Radio Orchestra, of Calgary, will be here. The following Thursday the cakies are putting on a Masquerade Dance, giving the election returns at the same time, while on Friday there is a Masquerade Dance at Carleton Place on November 3, a Masquerade dance at Nightingale.

Would it not be a good idea if the various sport and social organizations at Strathmore would get together now, and endeavour to discontinue the various dances, concerts, etc., throughout the next six months so that they would not conflict. The experience of other winters is that sometimes there would be nothing doing for weeks on end, and on other weeks something on every night.

Strathmore electors have the opportunity this week of listening to each of the five candidates for their suffrages. Mr. Douglas, Conservative, spoke Monday night. Mr. Garland, Progressive, speaks tonight, and Mr. Jones, Cange, Liberal candidate, on tomorrow (Thursday) evening. As there is not much likelihood of meetings by the candidates at the smaller points throughout the Strathmore district, every elector should take the opportunity of hearing of the views of the representatives of the various parties seeking their suffrages.

Every elector owes it to himself to be intelligent; and this is not possible until you hear all sides of the questions at issue.

Rosebud News

Get your glad rags ready to wear to the Sacred Heart Church bazaar and dance on October 25th, in Rosebud.

The Sangster family spent Sunday with the Cleary family south of town. The sweetest music ever, is the hum of the threshing machine, and people are doing no time now that it has not rained for a short time.

The latest reports were that Mrs. H. Buzzard was doing nicely, and we hope she will be able to return soon.

Harry Ledingham, an employee on the Harry Archibald farm, was removed to the Calgary hospital Saturday, being quite ill.

Mrs. Jack Campbell acted as hostess last Sunday for the following guests: Leslie Campbell and John Martin, of Enchant, Mrs. McDowell, Miss Hanley, and Fred Campbell, of Bitterker, Mrs. Grant, Miss Burke, Ed. Sarison, Gordon Graham, of Rabbit Lake and C. X. districts. The O. Ferrel and Parker families of Rosebud, and everyone had a most enjoyable time, and think they will return often.

W. Laters, and H. Bryant were week-end visitors in Drumheller.

Eleven of the young folks called at the Parker home last week on Tuesday evening, and caught one a napping, as the ladies were not in ball room costume, but after a short time the orchestra, consisting of Miss Roberts, Misses Hyman and Lander, were relieved by Miss Jones, and L. Bryant, sent forth beautiful strains while the others danced away the hours. We enjoyed it and hope they will come again.

Miss McElevan returned to her home in Walls Walls, Washington, after spending several weeks visiting Miss Nellie Gross.

To-day's Message to Bow River Electors

Jesse Gouge

The Liberal Candidate, Stands For:

1. Political organization on democratic lines, which means the participation of all the people on a basis of absolute equality in the affairs of government.
2. For encouragement and protection to the wheat pools.
3. For an elected Senate, with restricted terms.

Born and bred a farmer, with twenty years' farming experience in Alberta, and directly connected with Alberta's second largest industry, coal mining, his sound ideas on business administration, unimpaired by untried theories, makes him the ideal representative for an agricultural and coal mining constituency like Bow River.

We have an inquiry as to the origin of the name of Strathmore. We have to confess that we do not know exactly. A large number of Scotch pioneers were engaged on the laying out of the Canadian Pacific, and the likelihood is that one of them was responsible for the name. At the time of the building of the railway, and up to 1906, Strathmore was only a siding on the line, the section house being down near Eagle Lake. The section house was transferred here then on flat cars, and the name, consequently, travelled with it. Many points on the line, such as Cochrane, Banff, Carstairs, Camrose, etc., seemed to have been named the same way. There is an important district in Scotland, known as Strathmore. The name in Gaelic means "big fertile valley," and it is therefore a very appropriate name for the central town of the western Bow Valley. The Duke of York, with his recent viceroy, married a daughter of the Earl of Strathmore. A number of the irrigation sub-districts surrounding Strathmore have Scotch names, such as Crinsler, Craggair, Cairn Hill, Strangnair, Chany, Glenhead, etc. Calgary was named by Col. Macleod after his home place in Scotland, replacing the name Inglewood, which another member of the Mounted Police had tacked on it.

The Scot has always been a pioneer, and proud of his native land, and it seemed only logical that he should give the name of his home place to new discoveries in a land which has much in common with his homeland.

PREDICTIONS

While the Alburton feels quipped that it predicted the result of the world series ball game, he it remembered that it also predicted (not only predicted, but stated) that Freeman Greenfield would resign his post, and would go into the refuge for defunct politicians. Maybe it will be the editor of the Alburton who will be looking for the refuge for defunct politicians after the 29th.

Removal of the tariff on British goods would be only fair play. Britain has no tariff against our products, and she buys more from our country than we do from any other country. Britain's purchases from Canada last year amounted to $20,000,000, while Canadian purchases from Britain were $15,000,000.

HULLO! NEW YORK

It is now possible to speak from any telephone in Alberta to any point on the North American continent. The sound of a voice in an Alberta telephone receiver announcing that Montreal or New York, Vancouver or Los Angeles is calling will soon be among the things considered as every day occurrences.

Which is another sign that the time is growing smaller every day, and is a tribute to the inventive genius of those engaged in the science of telephony.

PEACE PACT SIGNED

One of the greatest steps forward since the termination of the Great War is the successful conclusion of the conference at Locarno, Switzerland, where representatives of Britain, France, Germany, Italy, and other countries, who only seven years ago were engaged in mortal combat, decided on a scheme of arbitration of future difficulties.

The success of this scheme does not depend upon the parchment on which it is written, but on the goodwill between the various countries. The citizens of the countries signatory to the pact have felt was in all its history, and have no desire to enter another conflict where it can be avoided by any possible means. The task before us is to imbue the rising generation with the same idea of the hopelessness of war as a means of settling disputes. The treaties signed are important in that they, with the League of Nations, provide the machinery with which the atmosphere of goodwill can be made use of, and to bring closer the day when "Peace on Earth, goodwill to wards men," may be permanent.

Craigantler News

Threshing is going ahead again at the time of writing, although being held up by rain on Thursday, starting again on Saturday morning, and again held up on Saturday afternoon by a snowfall of two hours duration. Most of the rigs started again on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hansen has moved on to the W. Dankworth farm for the winter.

Some of our young men left the district about a week ago for the States. They got as far as Calgary and returned home again. They heard of many Canadians returning from that country to their themselves.

George Green has been hauling lumber during the past week for his new barn.

George Green is making preparations to build a large barn when weather permits, all gravel and lumber has been hauled during the time threshing was suspended.

H. H. Ellis has got a good start on the gravel hauling. Quite a number of teams started to haul on Monday last.

M. C. Hansen is on the sick list at Carl Sheets' place.

THE ISSUE OF

THIS ELECTION

The principal issue of this election is as to whether we in Western Canada are to subordinate ourselves to a system of politics which has set up in Canada a government of plutocracy and which is cynically indifferent to those principles which have contributed to the liberty of English speaking nations.

The Protectionist system which Mr. Meighan and his supporters have been advocating, is a tax on the farmer for the benefit of the manufacturer. It does not hold out any hope of increasing prices for any of his wheat, barley, butter, eggs, or anything else he raises. It involves a diminution of the standard of living, because its tendency will be to make the cost of most of the articles he has to buy more.

Protection has led to a centralization of power, and a concentration of the manufacturing, banking, and financial institutions, and profits generally in the central portions of Canada. There is no reason why any farmer in Western Canada should vote for a higher tariff on the products of his best customer, Great Britain, for the purpose of bolstering up a manufacturing industry in Eastern Canada, which is of very little value to him. The citizens of the towns and cities of Western Canada are employed in vocations and industries, which would be affected beneficially by a reduction of the tariff, especially a reduction of the tariff on the necessities of living. The urban residents of Western Canada have interests in common with those of the farmer.

The Liberal party is fully as protectionist as the Conservatives, but not so honest about it. Furthermore, the bribes offered by the Prime Minister—the Hudson Bay Railway, elevated docks, cabinet positions, etc.—are not worthy of consideration. A political faith that engineers schemes for the spending of the money sweated out of the people in taxes with regard to their vote catching effect and not on their business expediency should be wholeheartedly condemned.

In voting for E. J. Garland on October 29th, the electors of Western Canada will be voting for clean politics, independent representation for Western Canada, responsible only to the electors, for wider and more profitable markets for their products, and for a raising of the standard of living throughout every home in the West. Mr. Garland has represented Bow River in Parliament for the past four years ably and efficiently. He will do better service for the electors in another term than an inexperienced and untried man.

Above all, whatever your politics go to the poll and vote on October 29.

Slats' Diary

Friday—Well this evening we took a ride up the line and got dinner at a restaurant up the line. I had a little house with his cold and when he orders Corn he said it is a kinda wiper and the waiter got down and wiped up on his hat and said,
"Mister this place is very sticky." Prohibition here or lately. And me and Ant Kenny and me
all had a good laugh on pays Xpense because the Joak was on him this Time.

Saturday—Well I shot up a good pome to ride to Jane today and I done it, and it went like this.
I love you lots my dear Jane.
I love you like the fine fine logs.
I love you like the flowers love rain.
I love you like a live doves.
So I sent it to her by Jake and I hope she calls me up to tell me what she thot of it.

Tuesday—I was out in front playing Mumples with Jake and me was a counting house from church was a diddent half to stay at and a man with sells books he stops — at me if that lady coming up the St. was married and I replied and said well if she aint she has played a good Joak on me and I'a becu she happens to be my mother. No news from Jane about the pome.

Tuesday—well I got a lickin today for taking the door apart but I was sent my. Ma told me to take the pits lock off and I give me a chance to use my new Screw driver. So I dont mind so much. Jane diddnt speak to me today, I nebbly there sun thing run.

Wednesday—Ella Fullness was up here tonight and sed she was a going to marry Joe Bonitt. Ant Kenny sed
I all ways heard that Joe was a pretty fast yung man. Ella Rose sed. Yes he was pretty fast I gess but he was sent fast enuff to get a way from me though.

Threday—Jane sent me a note today and she had rode a pome. It went thiaway.
When I see you run to school.
I new youd ask like sum darn fool.
I dont care how you love me Slats.
I fear yure bellies full of Bats.

Golf News

LADIES CLUB

A snowstorm, of the wet-blanket variety, put a stop to the events planned for Saturday last, namely the beginners competition, and the putting competition. However, with the help of the ancient game, something of Scottish indomitableness has entered into the ladies' golf club, and they intend (O.V.) to pull off the following events next Saturday, October 24th:
At 2:30 p.m. the beginners' game will start. 9 holes, stroke play, for the prizes referred to before the rest of the members will engage in a one-cut competition for prizes of silver club-pins, and everyone may enter the putting competition for the silver-crowned club tea spoon on payment of 15c.
The draw is as follows:
Mrs. Bidley with Mrs. Wright.
Mrs. Whitney with Miss Borton.
Mrs. Pierson with Mrs. Whitehead.
Mrs. Pierson with Mrs. Hirtle.
Mrs. T. Chamberlain with Miss Gibson.
Mrs. Rowe with Miss F. Garrett.
Miss Watson with Miss Kayvett.
Mrs. Gardiner with Mrs. Williams.
Mrs. Lydall with Miss Howe.
Mrs. French with Mrs. Kayvett.

The finals for the Consolation medal was won by Mrs. Lydall, 3 and 2 to go.
